

EVS in Liebenau Teilhabe, Hegenberg (near Ravensburg)

You want to do work with young people with disability during your EVS?

Liebenau Teilhabe Hegenberg is a big organization offering various kind of support to children and young people with disability.

Liebenau Teilhabe hosts two volunteers:

The first volunteer works in a residential group. The group consists of 8 young people with various degrees of disability and a group of experienced staff. This means that you spend time with the residents, you also help in the house work and really get to know the group. As the youngsters live there, you will need to work in shifts.

The second volunteer focuses on the Don Bosco School. You help young people with disability in school and support the teachers.

Both volunteers are also involved in free time activities on weekends or during holidays. This means that you might accompany a group to camps or offer free time activities yourself!

Hegenberg is really small and is actually made up by the Liebenau Teilhabe and a few private houses. The scenery is lovely and the bus connection to Ravensburg is good, by bus it takes about 20 minutes to reach Ravensburg.

Ravensburg is a small town, but it offers everything: bars, clubs, restaurants, cinemas and loads of amazing nature! And a historic centre:

The Liebenau Teilhabe would like to host volunteers who might have volunteer experience in working with youngsters with disability, the vacancy is however not open to people with a degree in social studies or pedagogy. If you don't have experience but are motivated, you are welcome to apply as well!

Language knowledge is not too important, it helps however to integrate!

You will attend a language class at the university Weingarten, a town next to Ravensburg!
